	and is thrown out, he is out. If safe, he must return to the previous base. The second offense by the same player in the same inning will result in an automatic out. If a runner leaves early and the batter hits the ball into fair territory, the runner is then out. Overthrows- runners may advance, at their own risk, only one base on an overthrow. If a play is made and another overthrow occurs, the runner may try to advance to the next base. Once the ball is thrown back to the pitcher at the end of the play, the play is over, and all base runners must return to their previous bases if not at least halfway to the next base. (Umpire's Judgement) Overthrow rule does not apply when the ball is thrown back to the pitcher. Courtesy runners are allowed for pitcher or catcher at any time, but the runner must be the player that made the last out.
Five-Run Rule	There are two ways to end an "At-Bat." <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Increase lead by five runs. (Does not apply to visitor's first at bat.)2. Three outs. Whichever one of the above happens first in a given half inning concludes that half inning immediately.
15-Run Rule	At the end of the third inning, if the winning team is up by 15 or more, the game is over regardless of the time left on the game clock.
